Alluring Appeal

A short three blocks from the CBD, this alluring home sits proudly on the block with space from neighbouring properties on all sides. It has appeal from the first approach, starting with the welcoming front veranda and the wide character filled hallway. This three bedroom home has beautiful original features, such as timber floorboards, wide skirting boards, picture rails and a gorgeous fireplace in the loungeroom. The kitchen has been updated and there's a retro bathroom, ducted heating and cooling to keep you comfortable all year round and new carpet. The yard is a great size, with established trees and a single lock up garage. This is a very appealing home, minutes' walk to the CBD in a lovely quiet street. It would be very easy to call this home, beautiful as is, and equally may appeal to a someone looking to extend or renovate further.
