

19 Prince Henry Dr, Prince Henry Heights, QLD 4350

Sold - $860,000

House 4 2 2

Timeless Appeal with a Family Friendly Feel!

Impeccably maintained and presented, and now offered to the market for the first time. This multilevel brick home is elevated in Prince Henry with views to the East and North. Perfectly aspected, the outdoor living areas enjoy a private and restful outlook through the treetops and established gardens, while allowing loads of light to brighten the interior spaces. Private from the street, hidden behind high hedges you will find a water feature amid lush gardens leading to the front door.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

With a light and bright family living room adjoining the functional kitchen with loads of cupboards and plenty of bench space, and easy access to the alfresco entertainment area right outside. This generous covered deck overlooks the gorgeous gardens and level grassed area where the kids can play. The separate formal lounge is oversized and features a full length bookcase and modern bay window, bringing the outside in.

The timber staircase takes you to the second level of the home, where you will find four large bedrooms with built ins, the family bathroom, and the master bedroom complete with a new ensuite and walk-in-robe. There is direct access to the balcony where you will take in the fantastic views or enjoy the stars at night.

With a fenced, low maintenance garden with different sections for all the family to enjoy, this property is easily cared for and conducive to effortless family living. This truly wonderful home features beautiful living spaces, plantation shutters, high ceilings and a lovely ambience throughout. Functional liveability in an esteemed location, your family will love living here for years to come.

Listed By

The Office
Phone: (07) 4632 8022

Matthew Nichols

