Set back from the road and securely fenced for absolute privacy, this extravagant, south-facing brick domain is accessible via a long driveway which reveals a charming facade complete with gabled roof, double garage, expansive lawns and tropical landscaping. Offering complete versatility, the vast block even has side access which allows you to drive right around the property.

A pedestrian path at the front meanders off to the side, allowing you entry via a breathtaking portico lined by trendy shrubs and ending in a regal timber and glass door.

Within, the immense layout has an abundance of entertainment space for families to relish, all of which being air conditioned by a quality ducted system.

First, a carpeted media lounge with ornate arched doorway and bi-fold doors invites residents and guests in for blockbuster viewing. It boasts an enduring beauty with a bay window, white wainscoting to the green walls, a ceiling rose, timber ceiling fan, timber fireplace, and ornamental cornices, plus a raised platform for an authentic cinema experience.

Next, a sprawling and open-plan lounge and dining area allows for casual or formal entertaining, or daily relaxation. Radiantly lit by sparkling downlights, it has a soft and delicate colour palette with stunning light timber floors, pale timber ceiling fans and a large, blue pastel bar with stone benchtops. Stylish yet graceful, it also includes a modern fireplace for the cosy winter months.

This spacious hub is overlooked by a huge, trendy kitchen which is adorned by a lengthy breakfast bar/island bench with chic timber pendant lights overhead. A gourmet's paradise, it's as stylish as it is functional by featuring white waterfall stone benchtops, blue pastel accents and glass splashbacks, shimmering white cabinetry, a dishwasher, and a wide gas stovetop/oven. For effortless catering, there's even a vast Butler's pantry with an overabundance of storage space and a concrete dishwisher.
