The heart of the home is the enormous open plan kitchen, living, and dining area. Filled with natural light, high ceilings, gleaming floors and a charming interior design, you will feel as though you have walked into an inviting modern homestead. The high doorways and even higher ceilings throughout the home add to the feeling of luxury and space.

The kitchen is well appointed, with spotless countertops and hardware that continues into the pantry/butlers. With a gourmet style wide oven, cooktop and integrated dishwasher, this space is the entertainer's dream.

The master wing of the home comprises of a large primary bedroom, walk-in robe, spacious ensuite with double vanities and a home office. The kid's wing has three double bedrooms, all with built-in robes and a large family bathroom. Storage is ample with large cupboards and additional space in the garage.

Indoor-outdoor living is effortless, with a large covered alfresco area overlooking the beautiful landscaped garden. Furthermore, the large flat area of manicured lawn just off the patio is begging for a pool or room to kick the footy.

The side entry takes you to a large split level shed with ample space. Currently set up with mancave, work shop and upper level storage.

This home has been meticulously designed with no expense spared for your enjoyment.
