

22 Glengala Dr, Rochedale South, QLD 4123

Sold - 16/10/2021

House 3 1 2

SOLD BY ANA WANG

A stroll away from idyllic Underwood Park, an array of buses, shops, and Rochedale State School is this lovely brick residence which has seen a complete revamp within. The new, flawless interior has been embellished with new trendy timber floors, a brand-new chef's kitchen, and a stunning new bathroom. Featuring a gorgeous deck that overlooks the peaceful, fully fenced yard, this Rochedale residence is perfect for young families.

Alternatively, investors will be pleased to know it has DA approval for a duplex!

With a classic, solid brick construction, this sturdy abode blends in with its family-oriented neighbourhood but hides the touch of glamour that can be found inside. Framed by flourishing shrubs, towering trees and a gently sloping lawn, this beautiful home includes a big double garage beneath the house which boasts plenty of additional storage space.

Up a set of stairs to the cosy front porch you'll be beckoned inside where a spacious, air-conditioned combined lounge and dining area sits beneath sparkling downlights. Finished with new stylish timber floors and luxe curtains to the large windows, it's a fabulous entertainment hub or retreat for everyday relaxation.

It surrounds the centrepiece of the home: the stunning kitchen. Exquisitely fitted with stone-look tiles and accentuated by a wide range of glossy cabinetry, endless amounts of sleek stone benchtops, and quality electric appliances, this gourmet's paradise is ideal for the chef in all of us.

Continuing down a pristine hallway, three generous, timber-floored bedrooms can be found. Each bedroom is awash in natural light, with trendy downlights above along with a cooling ceiling fan. Conveniently, each boudoir features a big built-in wardrobe and access to the lavish shared bathroom and water closet.

A true stunner, the shared bathroom is adorned by floor-to-ceiling tiles, a classy single vanity, bathtub, and shower and has a matching colour palette to the rest of the home which creates a seamless appearance.

That's not all: out back residents will relish using the quaint timber deck which overlooks the shady fenced yard. Great for hosting friends and family over the coming summer holidays, it provides ample space for alfresco dining or lazy lounging.

A few notable features include but are not limited to:

- 1 month old timber look flooring

- Fresh painted
