House 4  2  2

Spacious Family Living

Tucked away in a quiet court, in one of Moama's most sought after area, this expansive family home boasts multiple living options, large rooms and a well thought out plan.

Starting at the front of the home, the large master bedroom is immediately to your right as you enter, with a walk through robe behind the bedhead and a large ensuite, making for a spacious and comfortable master suite.

Opposite the master there is a spacious study, perfect for working at home. As you venture further into the home, you are greeted with the open plan kitchen living and dining area, the first of the living areas, it is a great sized space with plenty of natural light. The kitchen boasts 600mm gas cooktop and electric oven, a step-in pantry and plenty of storage options. The living area also opens out to the large under-roof alfresco. The second living area can be closed off completely from the rest of the house, making it perfect for a cinema or games room. The third living area services the three remaining bedrooms at the rear of the home, its the perfect space for the kids to have all their toys or desks for home schooling. The other three bedrooms are all a good size and boast built in robes.

Outside the large 809m² (approx) allotment provides a huge rear yard, with automated watering system, in ground trampoline, garden shed and lane access via double gates. It is as immaculate outside as it is inside.

With ducted heating and cooling, plenty of space for the whole family and in a quiet court, this large home is a must see.
