The Perfect Start

Presenting a fantastic opportunity to enjoy a central location on a level block. With four bedrooms, a neatly presented kitchen and bathroom, separate dining and living room with polished floorboards throughout. This home has plenty of back yard set on approx 638m2 block, this could be a great entry point into home ownership, or a great investment into the future. Situated in a quiet street and walking distance to schools, shops and public transport, this type of property won't last long!
