Call Kathy Sweeney today if you're searching for your dream home that ticks all the boxes... this could be it! This stunning property is the perfect family home in the sought-after and quiet area of Narangba. Not only is it situated on a 600m2 block in a premium location, this house has had a makeover and leaves nothing for the lucky new owners to do but enjoy. With clean & sleek interiors, a huge outdoor entertainment space and room for a bigger shed or pool to be added, you really can't go wrong here. Close to all the amenities you could possibly need, this home is sure to bring ease to your life.

At first glance of this property, you wouldn't know the treasures that lie within. The front hedges provide supreme street-front privacy for the whole family, so you can utilise the cute front yard space to its full potential. The homes floor plan was thoughtfully designed for family living. You're first met with the spacious lounge room to your left which includes a ceiling fan, multiple built-in display shelves throughout the room ready for you to add your own personal flair and large windows allowing natural light to flood the home & provide a welcoming ambience.

Next is the dining & kitchen area, this sleek and modern space includes an air-conditioner ensuring comfort on those hot Queensland days & nights, a breakfast bar, a large pantry, dishwasher, stainless steel appliances & double sink, and ample bench & cupboard space.

Heading further through the house, you will find the huge master bedroom including a ceiling fan, air-conditioner, 2x large double door built in wardrobes, stunning bay windows and access to the two-way bathroom. The bathroom is sectioned to 2 rooms, the first with bathtub and shower, the next with the large basin sink and vanity cupboard and separate toilet room.

The remaining 3 bedrooms all include ceiling fans and built-in robes. The large laundry room includes an abundance of cupboard and bench space & a linen cupboard.

Heading outside, this home again continues to impress! The expansive patio is perfect to any family event easily. Overlooking the yard space with large trees providing extra privacy and room for the kids & pets to run around. The yard also contains a garden shed.

This home has all the features you need with its prime location, lots of front parking space, 3 car long lock up carport with drive through access, large entertaining patio, 4 bedroom home with fans & built ins and plenty of space for adding another shed or pool.
