The Land of Opportunity- 70 HA with a Building Entitlement o

As the saying goes, buy land, and wait, or if you're a little impatient don't worry because this 173-acre lot has a building entitlement and provides the ideal level spot to construct your own private sanctuary in a true Australian native bushland setting.

This huge parcel has been held by the same owner for several years and the difficult decision to sell has now come to fruition opening the door to secure some oh so rare land on the beautiful Mid North Coast. It's hard to believe this peaceful setting is 30 minutes' drive to the CBD and pristine beachfront of Port Macquarie.

Some of the land is undulating, however the property has level access via mostly sealed road. There are some spectacular views to be discovered at the rear of the land and this picturesque location enjoys proximity to National Park, waterways, and a host of quaint hinterland and seaside villages.

If you're ready for the tonic of wilderness or seeking a large lot investment for the future, then why not throw your hat in the ring and call Tony Dekker today on 0429 838 800.
