Warm and welcoming interiors reveal high ceilings in a free-flowing layout with three living areas of ample size and five well-proportioned bedrooms, or four bedrooms and a study.

Ground level provides master bedroom, two living areas, bathroom with separate toilet and bar area appointed with additional pantry space and dining room.

The upper level offers the four remaining bedrooms, second bathroom, additional living area, cypress pine flooring, neat kitchen with ample storage and second dining space.

Three of the bedrooms offer built-in wardrobes, with a fourth bedroom featuring a large freestanding timber wardrobe.

Each level effortlessly transitions to a sun-soaked tiled balcony/veranda with panoramic views, perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying the morning sun. The backyard reveals a vegetable garden, external laundry, and additional storage space.

Further highlights include multiple split system air conditioning units, alarm system, storage under stairs and under the house, double lockup garage and side access to backyard.

Located minutes from local schools, shopping, and cafes, it presents a ready family home with the possibility for dual occupancy.
