When location is not negotiable...

The small sleepy seaside town of Sellicks Beach is home to 'Vic's Place', a refreshing coastal retreat. Recently updated, you'll enjoy the best of both worlds - with new world creature comforts & some old worldly charm.

The sea views are of course marvellous, but you're actually spoilt for choice with views of the rolling Hills & Cactus Canyon too!

This is what an authentic Aussie beach holiday looks like - disconnected from the hustle and bustle of the real world. While you won't find WIFI, a Smart TV, or a Shopping Centre, you will find Board Games, Stunning Sea Views, and a General Store. When we say you can unwind here, we really mean it!

The garden is quite the magical spot for everyone to gather. Picture heading home from a beach day to pop the bbq on and relax under the pergola while you wait, all the while the kids play on the large lush lawn.

~ Around ~

Sellicks Beach is a small seaside town where the Mount Lofty Ranges meet the sea. Surrounded by breathtaking scenery, you'll feel a million miles away – but you'll still be in close proximity of renowned eateries and neighbouring towns.

Steep cliffs soon give way to a long expanse of sandy beach, which is renowned for its plentiful fishing and boat launching facilities. The beach is one of the few beaches which allows driving and parking on the sand.
