By Appointment.

Not only does the cafe offer a delicious menu and overall experience, there is a range of health foods and dry goods available for sale, allowing customers to take a little slice of this place with them when they leave and drawing them back for more to restock their pantries.

Well located in the boutique township of Wingham; a riverside province with a rich cultural heritage known for its fresh and locally grown produce, natural rainforest, walking trails and of course, its ties with the farming landscape. This remarkable up and coming town is soon to be revitalized with the Council's beautification project underway through the main centre of town. Conveniently placed for healthy foot traffic within easy walking distance to various specialty boutiques and shops.

Profitability is a testament to its popularity and long list of repeat clientele who consider Garden Grub as their favourite. Solid trading figures are available on request.
