This Property is Conditionally Exchanged -SPACIOUS HOME, CL

This beautifully presented home, located on a tropically landscaped 728.5m2 block, elevated to capture the northerly breezes and ocean views, is a must to inspect. From the moment you enter, you will be impressed by the open plan design, high ceilings, stunning spotted gum hardwood floors and character this home exudes. Its peaceful location offers a pleasant and private outlook, just a short walk to beach, 18-hole golf course and Woolgoolga High School.

Boasting three good sized bedrooms, one with home office/study. Master bedroom is located at the front of the home and offers an ensuite, double BIR'S, privacy from the other bedrooms and a three-way bathroom that is perfect for the family on the busiest of mornings. A well-appointed kitchen features stone benchtops, pantry, plenty of storage and caters perfectly to the chef in the family. Open plan dining and living area are greatly complimented by feature glass bricks with floor to ceiling doors and windows leading out to a north facing deck. There is a second living area with wood fire and RCA which opens out to a lush fernery and entertaining area complete with bar. Remote controlled double garage with workshop, separate single garage, carport, and internal laundry completes the picture. This home is one that will tick all the boxes and is perfect for families or retirees who love fishing, walking on the beach, playing a round of golf and want to reside in a friendly beachside community. Being just five minutes' drive or 15 minutes' walk along the beach to Woolgoolga with cafes, boutiques, financial and medical facilities, it is an easy 20-minute drive to Coffs Harbour to a regional shopping hub with major health, and education campuses.
