Perched proudly on a hill overlooking crisp ocean views and surrounded by stunning land, this property is a rare find. A home that has been given years of love, and immaculately presented, it features room for everyone with 5 great sized bedrooms with robes and ceiling fans, including a master with a private ensuite and built in robes, country-style kitchen with ample cupboard and pantry space and multiple living/family areas providing the perfect opportunity to entertain guests and the entire family under one roof.

The exterior of the home speaks for itself with an abundance of character, matched with bay windows, a wrapped verandah with climbing vines, stunning gardens and rich flora. The property also offers a large 3 bay shed equipped with shower and toilet, perfect for storing the boat, caravan or large vehicle.

It's a family home like no other; to arrange your private viewing or to request further information of this stunning property contact Ray White Forster Tuncurry today on 02 6554 7666.
