Classic polished timber floor and high ceilings feature throughout the formal lounge room and bedrooms and are complemented by a timeless colour palette. The completely refurbished kitchen, bathroom and laundry are modern and clean with the bathroom having the luxury of a walk-in rain shower and separate freestanding bath. The spacious rear yard is immaculate with lush lawn and features a second toilet and two storage rooms and there is an undercover garage with roller door for the vehicle. If you have an appreciation for history but modern taste and want to reside away from the stresses of city living with room to move and against an iconic Australian backdrop then here is your opportunity.
