Whether you're downsizing or perhaps looking to relocate to the beautiful Arrawarra area. This delightful two bedroom two bathroom residence is at the eastern end of the park and offers a short stroll to the uncrowded gleaming beach.

This property presents beautifully and is a definite credit to the current owners you'll instantly reap the rewards of all the hard work. Transforming this home into a modern and tastefully decorated comfortable living space.

From the moment you enter this property your hit with warmth and homeliness. Opening the front door you are welcome to a bright open plan lounge room, moving through to the heart of the home is the spacious kitchen with gas stove and dishwasher. The impressive and private main bedroom provides you with an ensuite and plenty of hanging space. The Internal laundry is cleverly concealed and is paired with an immaculate stand-alone bath for those relaxing afternoons.

The home owns a large carport that could easily fit two cars, or room for storage options together with a garden shed adding to more storage options. The property benefits from beautiful greenery and an established garden.

With this property being well placed within the park and capturing the wildlife that nature offers, you'll be sure to live a peaceful and relaxed lifestyle. If your searching for that perfect location to settle into with nothing left to do, I encourage you to inspect this property today.
