By Appointment.

Built in 1996 situated in Glebe, this property has plenty to offer, including upstairs and downstairs living, open plan layout, 110m2 of total floor space all within a few minutes of the Hobart CBD, perfect!

Entering the property, you are met with a hazed glass wall which leads directly to the lounge area. The area is kept under optimal climate control all year round with a heat pump. Natural light is abundant through the main window and feeds all the way through the upper level. From here you have a laundry area including a separate toilet and hand basin, practicality at it's best.

The kitchen has plenty of room for the guest chef to enjoy and includes all the modern appliances. Meals will be a breeze to prepare here.

Dinner seating, you have a couple of choices, the main being able to enjoy the deck via the large glass sliding door, perfect for warmer nights.

Moving down the stair well, you have a practical storage area for items such as your bike, scooter or larger toys.

The two double bedrooms both have natural light, built in robes, electric panel heaters and have plenty of space for guests to relax and unwind.

Close by is the bathroom which offers a large vanity unit with clean white cabinetry and mirror, separate shower bay and bath tub while the second toilet is privately tucked away.

Located in the ever sought after suburb of Glebe, this property would be perfect for it's next purchaser for a solid investment for years to come.
