Residential Land

Small, boutique estate of 1 hectare lots...

Your chance to buy in Stage 2 consisting of 18 one hectare lots situated close to town overlooking the mountains.

This spectacular rural-residential subdivision is the next stage of a small boutique estate only minutes from the delightful riverside township of Bellingen on the mid-north coast of NSW.

If lifestyle and climate on your own small rural acreage are what you are looking for, then look no further. Paradise is here at McLean subdivision. Hydes Creek meanders its way through the estate and is surrounded by forest and views of the Bindari Ranges.

The spectacular lots have all modern services connected for your convenience. Underground power and bus transport at the entrance. Each lot features great views for you and your family to enjoy as well as the serenity and privacy which can only be found on rural acreage.

The building envelopes shown on the plan are only suggested sites and any position can be selected subject to council approval. There are no encumbrances on building materials or style of house design.

You can have your very own rural lifestyle and at the same time be only 4 minutes from idyllic Bellingen with its boutique coffee shops and quality restaurants pubs and clubs, and only thirty minutes from the bustling coastal city of Coffs Harbour with all the conveniences a city of 70,000 plus people has to offer.

The jet airport (50 minutes to Sydney) new base hospital, Australia's most beautiful golf course, 5 cinema complex and plentiful shopping in Coffs Harbour brings a touch of the big smoke within a 30 minute drive from your rural home.

If you are interested, please be quick, as there are only a few lots left for sale.
