PERIOD BEAUTY IN CENTRAL LOCATION!

This is a lovely example of a period home with its big wide verandah, classic high ceilings and ornate fretwork framing its hall and with its central location just minutes from the bustling Kurri Kurri CBD, we suggest booking in early to grab a front row seat!

The home has been tastefully renovated throughout and reflects a modern ensuite off the main bedroom, stunning main bathroom and excellent paintwork finishing and flooring throughout.

The wide front verandah is perfect for capturing the northerly aspect and warm autumn/winter sunshine and multiple entertaining areas will host the largest of functions with ease at the rear of the home.

The block is a generous 670sqm and with rear lane access and ample car accommodation, all thats left is to move you in to enjoy.

Kurri continues to please and with the newly announce Kurri Gas Fired Power Station earmarked for development, we see this as a fantastic investment or first home opportunity.

Within moments you are in Hunter Wine Country and the hunter Expressway taking you up and down the valley and coast with ease, or sit back relax and enjoy a great home that is sure to continue to please well into the future.
