Boasting a multitude of features, this home's timeless charm will enchant you as soon as you step foot onto this property. With a grand exterior, this home is perfect for those who wish to spend afternoons on the large deck area enjoying the sounds of the local wildlife whilst enjoying a cup of tea.

Entering this home you are invited through into the spacious living space, which is well-appointed with polished timber flooring, chic pendant lighting, and is rich with natural light. Great for snuggling up in the colder months, this space is also equipped with a cozy fireplace, making this homey living space perfect all year round.

To the rear of the home is the immaculate kitchen and dining area, with access to the sprawling patio and dedicated deck area. The kitchen is well-designed and effortlessly blends elements of nature & more modern tones together, creating the perfect culinary space to enjoy. With a large gas stovetop, charming bay window outlook, and a convenient dining bar, this space is great for entertaining guests.

Outside remains the true showstopper of this property with an additional deck area located off from the expansive wrap-around deck. This area is perfect for hosting guests and dining alfresco whilst enjoying the serene ambience this one-of-a-kind property has to offer. An immaculate grass yard, along with a two-bay work shed also offers more space for green thumbs and for those who are handy.

Moving back inside, four large bedrooms provide accommodation for this beautiful home. All the bedrooms include built-in wardrobes, ceiling fans & polished timber floors, whilst the master bedroom is treated to the addition of a walk-in & modern ensuite.

Located within a quiet pocket, this idyllic residence is close to Riverlink Shopping Centre, Tivoli State School, public transport & medical facilities. You also have quick access to the Warrego Highway, ensuring you will be able to easily commute to and from the CBD.
