Light-filled and super spacious, this substantial home, with its neutral palette and solid form, offsets with dramatic effect, the amazing ocean view that extends from one side of the property to the other - and will take your breath away, as you enter the house.

Master built, this is a unique opportunity in an unrivaled ocean front setting. The views are spectacular from virtually every room and there's fabulous entertaining spaces - inside and out, upstairs and down - as well as a groovy retro pool on the lower level and wide rolling lawns to the ocean. There's also a sandy track from the garden gate to the beach.

Architect designed and built to last, this house is like a blank canvas - ready and set to be enhanced and further developed, to take full advantage of it's highly sought after position.

The floorplan has been cleverly determined to accommodate different generations of family and friends, and will work beautifully for a wide range of family shapes and sizes - as a permanent home or as a wonderful holiday house.
