This beautifully presented four-bedroom brick home sits on a fully fenced 786m2 block tucked away off the road in the sought-after suburb of Raceview.

As you enter the foyer you will notice the spacious main bedroom to the right which includes a renovated ensuite, built-in wardrobe, fan and lovely bay window.

There are another three bedrooms on offer in this great floor plan which all include built-in wardrobes and remote fans to keep the family cool in the hot summer months.

The kitchen is in the heart of the home with loads of cupboards and bench space, dishwasher and a great breakfast bar for those busy mornings running out the door.

You will be able to see the kids watching TV in the generous living room that is positioned to the left of the family friendly kitchen.

As seen on the floorplan the dining area is off the kitchen with the third and fourth bedrooms being situated at the back of the home.

The separate toilet and family bathroom are placed between the second and third bedroom with bathroom consisting of a separate bath and shower for the whole family's convenience.
