

34 Mckanes Lane, Windellama, NSW 2580

Sold - $850,000

Lifestyle

Privacy to Escape to

"Chalk Hills"

Escape to this privately positioned sanctuary with some stunning escarpment views of the gorge and surrounding bushland. This 244.5 hectares consists of undulating timbered country and is filled with numerous wide valleys and little gullies just waiting to be explored.

One for the nature lovers and recreational users as regrowth and old timbers thrive as does the native flora and fauna. The property is fenced into 3 paddocks each with a dam and a small sheep holding yard. There is also the seasonal Broken Creek running through the property.

The property has building entitlement and would certainly suit someone looking to set up an eco-friendly lifestyle. The perfect house site waits to be chosen from one of the numerous spots.

Access to Mckanes Lane is off Spa road and is council road all the way to the front gate.

45mins to Goulburn and 2 hours to Campbelltown

GST is applicable on the sale of the property.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Listed By

Judy Alcock

Mobile: 0439 603 234

