This property has a simplistic and functional layout, perfect for you to enjoy the space provided. With the raised living room separated from the entry room by large arches, this layout provides separate spaces for living whilst also keeping it open, inviting and interactive. You can use endless ideas to utilise the space; a perfect area for a formal lounge or a study nook; the choice is yours. The original timber flooring showcases the space and allows for ease of upkeep.

The kitchen is separate from the living area with a retro feel. offering plenty of storage space and an island bench for entertaining, plus a dining nook for those intimate settings. The fun pop of orange brightens the space and large windows bring in the light from the outdoor landscape. The kitchen backs onto a functional laundry room leading out to the rear garden.

The bedrooms provide space for a family to relax and unwind with the master bedroom boasting a ceiling fan for those hot summer nights. The bathroom has been renovated to provide a clean and tidy space with white finishes for a larger feel and a separate toilet.

This property has a decent-sized block, with space at the front and back for those sporty activities and a garden shed for all your storage needs.
