Residential Land

So close yet feel so far away

Are you searching for a property that will remind you each day of nature's beauty, and offer you seclusion, serenity, and the space to spread your wings?

This parcel of land is a wonderland of native wildlife, and a tranquil place to call home. Imagine acquiring your own slice of nature to build your dream home (STCA), graze a few cattle, or establish a hobby farm providing an environment of peace and harmony.

These 2 separate titles comprising of 3.187 hectares (7.87 acres) of combined bushland and pasture with the opportunity to enjoy gentle sloping topography along with the advantage of the proximity to Kettering and Kingston. The location offers the convenience of all major services including both primary and secondary schools, fresh produce markets, fishing, yachting, boating facilities, and the sheltered beach of Coningham close by, perfect for a swim on a warm day.

A lifestyle of diversity awaits whether you are inspired by a rural setting, having the space and fresh air of the natural surroundings, creating your own private bushwalking tracks, or immersing yourself in the symphony of birdlife.

If you are inspired by the possibilities of what this parcel of land offers and an incredibly central location to call home, or interested in securing a solid investment, call Alison for more information.
