Your next best move

Boasting a versatile 4-bedroom floor plan suited for the modern-day family, this near new home is the perfect alternative to building. Positioned in the popular Copelands Estate on the northern fringe of Warragul near parkland, playground and primary school this stylish home resides on a flat and very spacious 702m2 allotment. A spacious study area couples with a formal sitting/theatre room and main bedroom forming a parent-retreat style wing of the home while a spacious open plan family/meals area with split system air conditioning integrates well with outdoor entertaining/alfresco area and adjoins a modern kitchen with stone benches, breakfast bar, corner pantry and quality Miele appliances. In addition to the double auto garage with internal access there is gated side vehicle access to a fully enclosed north facing rear yard with private fencing and garden shed. Simply move in and enjoy all the perks this home and sought-after address have to offer.
