A World Of Opportunity On A Rare 1,069sqm Landholding

Development opportunities in this connected pocket of Kingsford are a rare find and this freestanding double-fronted property presents a world of opportunity on a sprawling 1,069sqm landholding. A deceased estate available for the first time in almost 50 years, this unique residence is currently configured as three self-contained dwellings surrounded by sunny gardens with a triple carport and wide drive with plentiful parking. Perched high for privacy and surrounded by lush lawns, there's so much potential here with scope to build your dream home, subdivide or renovate the existing residences and create the ideal compound for multi-generational family living. On the edge of Randwick's university and hospital precinct, the 12m fronted property is 650m to the light rail and within easy reach of Kingsford's dining scene, the International French School and Mount Sinai College.
