One of the fastest growing parts of Ipswich

The people of Redbank Plains are taking advantage of all the opportunities this area has to offer.

Whether you're looking for a larger home, more job prospects or just want your kids' education needs met somewhere other than Brisbane--Redbanks may be where it's at.

The Redbank Plains region is located within seven minutes of the Springfield CBD and 30 minutes from Brisbane.

With proximity to major employment, educational institutions as well health care facilities this area has great potential for growth in coming years.

Redbank Plains is set to be drastically transformed with three new developments and a major redevelopment of the shopping village.

The road construction project has already begun, bringing us one step closer to this great suburb's future!

The accessibility to major employment, health and education nodes makes Redbank Plains an attractive place for families.

It's popularity with these demographics has caused it to be increasingly popular over time as well.

With $107 billion worth of infrastructure plans in the works, it's clear that this region has a lot going for it.

The Ipswich 2020 and Beyond Plan is one such program with an ambitious goal: To create Australia's most livable city by 2032.

This package of projects is expected to increase economic growth and employment opportunities.
