I'm home to sandy feet, calm minds, and lasting memories.
I'm made for hosting up to eleven of your nearest and dearest in true comfort, with conveniences that make your stay as effortless as it is enjoyable.

You'll find me just a short stroll from the Esplanade of Aldinga Beach, and a stone's throw from bustling cafes/eateries. Plus, I'm central to some of the best hangouts down south – like 'Big Easy Radio' and 'Kickback Brewery'.

I'm for all-weather holidaying and encourage indoor-outdoor living. Lazing on the rattan lounges with a glass of chilled rose or feeling the fresh grass between your toes as you pick lemons, figs, and passionfruit from the fruit trees in the garden – just a few peaceful places you won't forget.
Although I scream summer break, I'm also a winter retreat. Take your pick from plenty of cosy indoor spots – on the sofa watching your favourite movie in front of the fireplace or curled up on the daybed with a good read while the warm winter sun beams in.

Stretch out amongst my generous two storeys consisting of four bedrooms, three bathrooms (two being ensuite), two living rooms, a large kitchen, plus a kitchenette.
I'm the perfect 'home away from home' for families who want to step away from their every day, with plenty of family-friendly amenities like DVDs, Books, Boardgames, Bean Bags (not forgetting the more practical but just as important, Baby Gate and Highchair). The garden is just the place for kids to play – private, fully fenced, and overlooked by the alfresco area and kitchen.

I'm equal parts pretty and practical with inclusions that help add that special touch to your time away, including double-glazed windows, instant gas hot water system (with temperature control), ducted evaporative cooling, and electric & gas heating. Accommodating eleven might not sound easy, but I make it just that with a dishwasher, a large washing machine, and plenty of parking spaces.
