Golf Course Views With A Luxurious Touch !

Positioned opposite of the popular Tocumwal 36 hole Golf Course & Bowls Club. A golfing or bowlers dream home awaits!

This fully renovated superior quality two-storey brick veneer home boasts plenty of character complimented by the luxurious fixtures and fittings throughout. Not a dollar needs to be spent!

The impressively high ceilings take full advantage of capturing the natural light throughout the seasons with a generously sized open plan kitchen with well-appointed modern appliances & stone benches adjoining a wonderful dining space with direct views over the landscaped gardens flowing into the living area complimented with a traditional solid fuel fire place to enjoy those winter nights.

Stairway to the upper level with great views of the fairway and natural light flooding into the space; this space has functionality for a bedroom, second living space or studio. Favored by additional storage space in upper-level attic for your convenience which has options to further utilise.

Both ground level bedrooms enjoy spacious proportions with personal fully renovate ensuites, walk in robes and complimented by an abundance of natural light while enjoying their own different aspects.

Well-manicured landscaped gardens surround this wonderful home and really complete the overall package of luxurious golf course living without the high maintenance.

Tee Off with this winning package as it's the hole in one you've been chasing !!
