

14 Rinkin , Cootamundra, NSW 2590

Sold - $690,000

House 5  2  1

Expansive Family Haven

Lovingly maintained and beautifully presented on an expansive 2103smq block, this home is filled with plenty of natural light and warm neutral tones promoting style, space and relaxation for all the family. Modern living meets family functionality in this stunning residence, offering space in abundance there is room for the whole family, whether inside or out. A family haven boasting five generous bedrooms, the master bedroom with a large walk-in robe and ensuite. The main bathroom is centrally located and offers both a full bath and separate shower. As you move through the home you are sure to enjoy the bright open plan living and dining spaces that flow through to the modern kitchen with large walk-in pantry. Take a look outdoors and be pleasantly surprised with all that is on offer, covered entertaining rear deck, established lawns and beautifully landscaped gardens, veggie patch, garage and workshop space, double carport, fantastic off-street parking, caravan or boat storage plus a permanent cabana/ teenager's retreat. Impressive extras include ducted heating and cooling, internal laundry, under house storage, rain water tank and watering system. Offering an unrivalled lifestyle in a peaceful location with a rural outlook this home is a space you will simply love and enjoy for many years to come.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Listed By

David Moore

Phone: (02) 6942 2344

