

21 Barker St, Tocumwal, NSW 2714

Sold - 23/02/2023

House 3  1

Modern Family Residence

Presiding on one of Tocumwal most prized and picturesque tree lined streets, awaits this charming three-bedroom home which has undergone a transformative contemporary renovation that exudes timeless elegance.

Immediately captivating, a large entrance hall flooded with natural light introduces a collection of versatile and attractive living spaces, free flowing and beautifully zoned.

The open plan kitchen, living and dining room boast state-of-the-art appliances, beautiful neutral benchtops, an abundance of storage and a free standing oven. Positioned in a highly spacious open plan configuration, this area flows effortlessly to the north-western facing outdoor living and sheltered areas which overlook the spacious backyard. A separate living room at the front of the home provides ample flexibility.

Consisting of three bedrooms with built in robes, the master enjoys generous proportions, whilst the family bathroom serves the house hold and adjoins a separate toilet.

A fully fitted laundry ensures that there is no lack of storage capacity with direct rear yard access. Additional external storage shed for all your hobbies or garden supplies. Car accommodation comprises a carport potential to enclose.

Neutral tones paired with timbers, contemporary styling and heating/cooling, all herald in the requirements of today's modern luxury.

21 Barker is positioned within walking distance to parks, sporting grounds, Tocumwal shopping hub, with easy access to schools and the Freeway, allowing for a quick commute to major cities and surrounds.
