Get ready to discover an amazing flood-free property that could become a dream family home in the sought-after suburb of Woodend. Located in a quiet cul-de-sac within walking distance to Ipswich Boys Grammar, St Edmunds College and St Mary's College.

Once you enter this inviting post war home you will be greeted with a large central, freshly painted lounge room which includes some key heritage features, together with the picture rail and ornate cornicing spanning the room. You will be pleasantly surprised to see a wood burning fireplace for the cosy winter evenings while the fan and air-conditioner will keep you cool in the hot summer months.

Off the left of the lounge room is the very generous, bright and airy first bedroom. Then continuing on you will find another two bedrooms with the family bathroom perfectly positioned in the middle. The spacious fourth bedroom also leads off the lounge from the right with all the bedrooms including polished wooden floors and ornate cornicing.

As showcased in the floorplan the newly painted, eat-in kitchen provides plenty of cupboard and bench space which leads you through to the laundry. This wet area includes a walk-in shower and a second toilet along with the laundry facilities.

Additional bonuses of this property include one car garage, two carports, a workshop/storage space, solar electricity, natural gas hot water to the kerb and various established fruit trees.
