This lowset post war home is the perfect family dream and even has the white picket fence as well as a large double bay 7.8m x 6.4m powered shed to the side of the home.

As you make your way through the front gate you will just love the space of the front veranda. A perfect area to enjoy your morning cuppa before heading off to work.

The spacious air-conditioned and carpeted family room is generous in size and perfect for the family to enjoy quality time together.

With the air-conditioned dining area off the kitchen, this is also a wonderful space to enjoy meal time together. The kitchen has had an upgrade since original and has loads of bench and cupboard space, perfect for the chef of the family.

Heading down the hallway, this is where you will find the 3 carpeted and air-conditioned bedrooms. All with wardrobes and ceilings fans.

The main bathroom has also had an upgrade from original, is spacious with a walk-in shower and linen cupboard and is perfect to service all members of the household.

Making your way out the back door to the covered patio area, the grassed area is perfect for your little furbaby and children to run around free and secure.
