If you have been searching for a solid low set brick and tile home you won't want to miss out on this one-off opportunity. Nestled on a great sized 709m2 block, this prime position property would be a great purchase for an astute investor or first home buyer.

As you enter this lovely home, you will be greeted to a great sized lounge room that follows through to an office area, perfect for buyers who work from home. Buyers will also love that this room feels light and airy as it is flooded with natural light.

Located adjacent from this area is the kitchen where the cook of the family will be able to whip up home cooked meals. Families will be able to sit and enjoy these meals in the great sized dining area that provides buyers with plenty of space for a decent sized table.

Showcased in this floorplan are 4 bedrooms, 3 are complete with built-in wardrobes. Parents will appreciate that the carpeted master bedroom also offers a ceiling fan and air-conditioning unit.

Entertaining guests and family members will be super easy outside as the awesome patio area will provide you with plenty of space. Buyers will also appreciate that the large fenced backyard is easy to maintain and will keep your children and pets safe. You will also be greeted to a fenced, concrete plunge pool, as well as your own spa.

Car accommodation will not be a problem, as this property includes a single carport which will protect your vehicle from the weather.

In this floorplan there is also a rumpus area, which can be transformed into whatever you desire and for those buyers who need more car accommodation, you can
