If you have been looking for a renovator to provide you with countless possibilities, you won't want to miss out on this one-off opportunity. Nestled on a massive 1012m2 block and situated minutes away from the centre of town, this prime position property's location cannot get any better than this.

Boasted by this floorplan is endless potential. Buyers will be greeted to two decent sized bedrooms, as well as the main bathroom that is situated in a location perfect to service household members and guests.

Also showcased in this floorplan is the great sized lounge room, the separate dining area and the decent sized kitchen that offers so much potential. Buyers will love the bell ceilings located in the lounge room and kitchen.

Outside you will find the cute patio area followed by the shed. As for car accommodation, you will be able to store your vehicle under the single carport.

Buyers will appreciate that this home sits on a massive 1012m2 block filled with greenery and vegetation. This massive block provides renovators with heaps of potential. With some hard work and loving hands, this quaint post war home could certainly be transformed into the beautifully renovated home you've been dreaming of.
