Deep within the Aldinga Scrub Conservation Park area; this property sits on private native park-like surrounds just moments from the crystal waters of Aldinga Beach.

Every room gets a view of your lush setting, while 10ft timber ceilings, slate floors and an abundance of natural light create an incredible feeling of space.

The expansive living and dining area is a great spot for everyone to gather around the slow combustion heater, or appreciate the split system air conditioner and ceiling fans.

You will never have too many cooks in the huge kitchen!

Take your morning coffee on the wrap around verandah, overlooking the front garden – which is home to many a feathered and furry local – does it get any better?

Four large bedrooms, each with a ceiling fan, and a picturesque view. The bathroom is also a generous size and there is even a view from the bathtub.

Plenty of parking under the double length carport and on the long driveway.
