Executive Living with Cityscape

Perfectly positioned in a central and tranquil tree lined location, this substantial family home provides for a warm and charming lifestyle incorporating a flexible floor plan boasting multiple separate indoor living areas, designed to cater for large family living, while providing for your optimum enjoyment.

Privately protected from the street, this character filled family home welcomes you with ambient pitched ceilings and polished timber flooring. Possessing floor plan flexibility, this home offers an ample dining opening to a quaint sun drenched courtyard. Off the dining lies a spacious lounge adorned by a wall of windows opening to the substantial covered alfresco entertaining deck set against a tranquil treetop backdrop, while overlooking the rear grassed yard. Adjacent is a homely kitchen featuring integrated stainless steel appliances, a ultra modern kitchen and room for casual dining, all opening out to the outdoor living. Adding to the significant living space is an additional generous family room, ideally located on the lower level, also overlooking the rear yard.

Providing an abundance of accommodation are 4 bedrooms including the light filled master suite which opens onto a light filled home office and boasts a walk through robe and an ensuite. Completing this fabulous package is the automatic garaging & cellar.
