As they say in the game of monopoly 'DO NOT PASS GO' Once, you've viewed this home, there's no turning back. This home is beautifully maintained. As you step through the front entrance door your words will be 'My monies on this one' Ahead of you is a hallway that leads you to the stairs of the entrance to a very spacious open plan living area complete with air conditioning and media room/study and a study nook.

The modern kitchen with a neutral colour scheme blends in naturally with the tastefully coloured tiles throughout the home. Fitted with a 5 burner gas stove, dishwasher, ample cupboards, bench space and a double pantry, it's a delight to cook in.

The home offering 4 spacious bedrooms, mirrored robes and fitted ceiling fans will certainly be a winner for the larger family. Our master bedroom complete with dual basin ensuite and a full length shower included with a walk in robe is certainly going to impress you. The main bathroom which has an abundance of natural light includes a separate shower and a bath tub with a triple length linen cupboard close at hand that will cater for all your sheets, towels, blankets plus much more.

Location is perfect as it is situated in the most sought after area, Waverley Heights Estate. Surrounding homes are all with street appeal and walking distance to local parks and reserves with walking tracks.
