Heading up the carpeted spiral staircase, you will land on the top floor where you will find the main bedroom and parents retreat. Secluded from the rest of the home, you can enjoy privacy here away from the hustle and bustle while absorbing the breathtaking views of the MacDonnell Ranges from your very own private balcony.

The kitchen, dining area and living space all flow together allowing for the family to enjoy this open plan space together. The kitchen features quality Bosch appliances, an array of cupboard space and benchtop space.

On the other side of the kitchen is where you will find the spacious formal lounge complete slow combustion heater offering a great place to entertain during the colder months. Exiting through the western side of the house is the undercover entertaining area providing the ideal spot for a barbeque while relaxing with friends.

In addition, this home also offers a carport and lock up garage, ducted evaporative cooling and reverse cycle air-conditioning in every room.
