Apartment 2  1

A Stylish Art Deco Sanctuary In A Garden Setting

A quiet setting away from the road and a leafy outlook over lush common gardens underline a feeling of openness and sanctuary in this boutique Art Deco apartment. Positioned in a leafy Art Deco quadrangle between the celebrated lifestyle hubs of Woollahra village and Double Bay, the stylish two-bedroom apartment is a short walk to Edgecliff station and a short walk to Trumper Park tennis courts, The Lord Dudley pub and Queen Street's cosmopolitan cafe and arts scene. Tucked away to the rear of the grand 1930s 'Lillingstone', the ground floor apartment has undergone a flawless renovation blending vintage charm with designer flair to create a stylish village home
