As the new owner, you will sit amongst the truly elite presentations of real estate in the south coast close to popular cafes and eateries, whilst hosting a multitude of reasons to invest be it for lifestyle and dog walks along the beach or tapping into rich holiday rental yields historically and consistently available.

The ocean & hills in sight from both balconies front and rear are just the beginning of a property stacked with other key in home features which include:

- * 35sqm balcony overlooking the ocean
- * Huge living and dining area on upper level
- * Reverse cycle air conditioning and ceiling fans throughout the property
- * Large kitchen with walk-in pantry and island bench
- * Two master suites with ensuite bathrooms
- * BIR in all 4 bedrooms
- * Impressive fixed desk multi use built in study
- * Multiple living and entertaining areas
- * Enclosed garage plus carport by entrance
- * Convenient low maintenance rear lawn and garden

173A Esplanade connects you to the coast, whilst the colour palette gives a nod to the surrounding olive and wine region for which the Fleurieu Peninsula is renowned.

The opportunity also exists to package both 173 & 173A Esplanade as a dual sale consideration.
