As you step into this as new apartment, the first thing that captures your attention are the captivating views. The apartment's fourth-floor location ensures unobstructed vistas of the surrounding park and cityscape, and also the enchanting Adelaide Hills. Here, you can watch the sun dip below the horizon in the evening, casting a warm and tranquil glow over the tree tops.

What truly sets this property apart is its proximity to Hurtle Square, a charming and historic pocket of Adelaide. From your vantage point, you have a front-row seat to this beautiful garden square, providing a unique and dynamic backdrop to your daily life. Whether you're people-watching or enjoying the vibrant local events, this location offers an unparalleled sense of community within a predominantly owner-occupied building.

One of the distinctive features of this apartment is the private recessed terrace. Fitted with an automated external blind, the terrace can be enjoyed all year-round as an open or enclosed haven where you can unwind, entertain, or simply bask in the tranquility. From sunrise to sunset, the terrace offers an ideal outdoor alfresco space, whether for your morning coffee or evening gatherings with friends and family.

The award-winning Forme Projex Group Developments have ensured that every detail exudes elegance and sophistication. The construction, completed in 2022, has been recognized with an HIA Sustainability award, reflecting a commitment to eco-friendly living.
