House 4  2

A place to call Home

Welcome to your dream abode nestled in the heart of the picturesque Waterford Rise, perfectly positioned between the vibrant towns of Warragul and Drouin. Introducing a splendid 4-bedroom haven bathed in natural light.

Step inside to discover the essence of modern comfort and style. A beautifully wide entry sets the tone for what awaits beyond, leading you to the heart of the home-a well-appointed kitchen boasting an expansive long island bench and a convenient walk-in pantry complete with its own sink.

The allure of this home is further enhanced by not one, but two separate living areas, allowing for versatile entertainment and relaxation options. Whether you seek intimate gatherings or spacious family get-togethers, this home provides the perfect setting for both.

With ducted heating and a split system, this residence ensures comfort and climate control throughout the year, effortlessly adapting to the changing seasons.

Embrace the convenience of a location that combines the best of both worlds - peaceful suburban living with easy access to the freeway for seamless commuting. Enjoy the tranquility of nearby parklands, providing the perfect backdrop for serene strolls and outdoor activities.
