This sprawling residence, with its solid bones and grandeur, stands as a testament to a secure and peaceful life.

The mature, park-like gardens sprawl over two hectares, inviting you to immerse yourself in a world where tranquility meets convenience. Picture yourself strolling along green pastures, perhaps designing your own French-styled garden, the grandeur of the property, with views that extend to distant mountains, drawing your gaze through the northern backyard.

Inside, the 511m2 dwelling boasts 9-foot ceilings, 6 oversized bedrooms, and 4 bathrooms, offering unparalleled comfort and versatility. Two upstairs bedrooms, each a generous 8.3 meters in length, present endless possibilities - a personal haven, a creative space, or a home office overlooking the breathtaking scenery.

As you step into the extra-large kitchen with its gas cooktop, ample bench space, and storage, you can envision hosting grand events in the four lounge areas or extending gatherings under the full-length covered pergola. The allure of this home lies not just in its versatile interiors but in the promise of customization - a canvas for you to create a home tailored to your dreams.

This property goes beyond being a home; it's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for strategic investment and development potential. With fenced areas suitable for dog runs and chook pens, the possibilities are as vast as the land itself. Imagine holding onto the front 2 acres and carving off the rear 3 acres to join nearby subdivisions, securing your future amidst sought-after growth.

Strategically located just minutes from Toowoomba CBD, private and public schools, and the brand new Baillie Henderson Hospital, this property combines convenience with exclusivity. It's a rare chance to secure not just a home but a legacy, a piece of real estate that transcends time.

Whether you're an estate enthusiast yearning for grandeur, a developer with an eye for strategic investment, or a nature lover seeking a peaceful haven, this property beckons. Embrace the versatility and unique features that define this grand home, and seize the chance to make this extraordinary property your own.
