Walk to work

The financial and legal sectors are a short stroll, as is the parliamentary precinct and the Mater hospital. QUT is across the street, Griffith University's College of Art, State High, and Somerville House schools are within easy reach across the Goodwill Bridge. The second bedroom is light and airy making it an ideal office. Work from home - the balcony overlooks the pool.

Walk to entertainment and restaurants

South Bank and West End with theatres, art galleries and libraries are nearby. You are surrounded by restaurants - spoilt for choice.

Walk to shopping and services

As you are in Brisbane City, every convenience that the CBD has to offer is available to you. The soon to be completed Queen's Wharf is around the corner.

Forget the car. But if you must, Quay West has had the infrastructure installed so you can set up electric vehicle charging.

Inspect and see for yourself the advantages of living in Quay West - in a beautiful and convenient environment. You can have it all!
